- 25X1 10. In the primary school of T'iehshan (鐵山) (121-19, 38-52?), seven kilometers northwest of Port Arthur, there are billeted 200 Soviet tank corps troops. Fifteen heavy, and seven or eight light tanks are parked at the school.
- 25X1 11. On Erhlungshan (二龍山). Port Arthur, there are 2000 Soviet soldiers equipped with more than ten guns. [] Note: [] Soviet troops at Erhlungshan, 8 kilometers southeast of Pulantien, were ordered to withdraw. On the western slope of the mountain there are four newly constructed ammunition storehouses, each consisting of four rooms.
- 25X1 12. The artillery positions in Port Arthur which were built by the Soviets are being demolished; however, the defenses in the vicinity of Shihho (121-51, 39-20) are being strengthened.
13. The Soviet patrol lines, previously reported as extending from Shihho eastwards to Tungpeik'ou (122-11, 39-22) and southwards to Houerhshih (猴兒山), have been extended 1.5 kilometers since early May 1947. Travelers who pass through this area are being drafted to dig foxholes, trenches and other defenses.
14. There are four Soviet military hospitals in the Port Arthur area, with a total capacity of 3000 patients:
- a. The former Japanese Police training camps in Tayangkou (大陽溝).
 - b. The former Women's Normal College in the city.
 - c. The former Japanese Engineering College in Tayangman (大陽滿).
 - d. The former Japanese Military Hospital in Palit'un (八里屯) (121-16, 38-51) east of Shuishihying.
15. In early May the Soviet forces removed from the Port Arthur Telephone Office 1200 telephones and 200 rolls of telephone wire, which they transported to Vladivostok.
16. In the storehouses of the former Japanese-Manchurian Commercial Association at the southeastern foot of Ch'ingyunt'ai (青雲台) hill, in the hilly area "in front" [?] of Dairen, there is a munitions factory. Since September 1946 machine guns have been manufactured there at the rate of 40 pieces daily, besides ammunition.
17. On the following islands in the Ch'angshan Group there are 40-50 Soviet troops:
- a. Tachangshantao (122-35, 39-16)
 - b. Hsiaochangshantao (122-45, 39-14)
 - c. Haiyangtao (123-10, 39-04)
 - d. Changtzutao (122-45, 39-03)
- Every three days liaison groups contact these outposts.
17. There are 23 Soviet tanks stationed in the Kanchingtzu (甘井子) section of Dairen. At Liushutun (122-43, 39-01) there are 12 Soviet tanks.
